)	SCHEDULING ORDER

Defendants.)

On March 9, 2021, the Parties filed a Joint Request to Modify the Scheduling Order (Document 15) requesting modification of the initial Scheduling Order (Document 3) issued on June 9, 2020, by U.S. District Court Judge Troy L. Nunley. The Parties presented the following good cause in support of their request to modify the scheduling order:

1 1. On or about June 9, 2020, the Initial Pretrial Scheduling Order became
2 order of the Court by Judge Troy Nunley [Dkt. 3].

3 2. On or about October 1, 2020, the Court issued a Minute Order advising the
4 Parties to submit any request to modify the Court's Initial Pretrial Scheduling Order
5 through a Joint Stipulation with specific deadlines [Dkt. 12].

6 3. After Judge Nunley issued the scheduling order, the Parties moved forward
7 with written and oral discovery. However, the Parties' ability to complete necessary
8 discovery has been hampered and delayed by the COVID-19 pandemic, in particular,
9 there has been significant delay in receiving records from third-party medical care
10 providers.

11 4. While the Parties have been diligent in pursuing discovery, they will be
12 unable to complete discovery by the present deadlines as ordered in the Initial Pretrial
13 Scheduling Order.

14 5. The parties proposed the following schedule:

Matter	Current Date	Continued Date
Non-Expert Discovery Cutoff	April 5, 2021	July 6, 2021
Expert Witness Disclosure	June 4, 2021	September 2, 2021
Rebuttal Expert Witness Disclosure	July 6, 2021	November 3, 2021
Supplemental Disclosures and responses (including expert supplemental materials)	September 4, 2021	December 3, 2021
Dispositive Motion Deadline	October 4, 2021	February 3, 2022

22 6. The Parties agreed that additional time is needed to complete discovery and 23 expert discovery and that the requested continue is in the best interest of all Parties, and 24 will not unduly prejudice any Party.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
